SIXTEENTH ANNIVERSARY ITALIAN HERITAGE MONTH NEWSLETTER

2015 marks the 16th anniversary of the 1999 legislation proclaiming October as Italian-American Heritage Month. The Italian American community will once again gather at the State House for the reading of the Governors Proclamation. Congratulations to the 2015 Italian American Month Award recipients. The "Leadership in Education" Award presented to Francesco Cesario of Assumption College, "Leadership in Music Education" presented to Tino D'Agostino of Arlington High School, "Public Service to the Italian Community" presented to Luigi Munno, Deputy Consul General.

We are grateful to the Donato Frattaroli Family, the St. Joseph's Society and the East Boston Savings Bank for providing this year's scholarships to outstanding high school seniors.

Participating in the State House festivities will be: Fr. Jack Izzo; Francisco Urena, Massachusetts Secretary of Veterans Affairs; Boston Police Department Superintendent Frank Mancini; the Order of Sons of Italy in America, the Dante Alighieri Society; Federation Italian-American Association; COMITES; CASIT and the Coro-Dante chorus, conducted by Music Director Kevin Galie. The festivities will begin at 6:00pm followed by a reception with light refreshments.

On behalf of the October as Italian-American Heritage Committee and participating organizations, we are pleased to share with you our CALENDAR OF EVENTS for the 16th anniversary celebration of October Italian-American Heritage Month. Every year we try to offer a variety of programs that highlight the outstanding talents of Italian and Italian Americans. Many of these events are free and open to the public thanks to the generous donations received from the Italian Consulate, organizations, businesses, libraries, colleges, and individuals. Your donations make it possible to distribute the CALENDAR OF EVENTS and the NEWSPAPER across Massachusetts.

A heartfelt thank you to those dedicated members of the committee who attended the many planning meetings; giving of their time, ideas, and energy to organize and create this amazing list of events to celebrate October as Italian-American Heritage Month.

The Committee wishes to thank the Dante Alighieri Society for hosting this year's committee meetings. We are grateful to the Order Sons of Italy who have provided the cooperation and resources to assist with the October as Italian-American Heritage Month. Thank you to Publisher and Editor Pamela Donnaruma of the POST-GAZETTE newspaper for her patience and knowledge, Vice President of Fiscal Affairs for the Italian Heritage Committee Sal Bramante and Executive Director of the OSIA Grand Lodge of Massachusetts Paul Guida for their collaboration and publication of this year's Calendar of Events and Newspaper.

The Committee would like to recognize and thank founders Comm. Lino Rullo, Hon. Joseph V. Ferrino, Ret., and Hon. Peter Agnes, for their invaluable assistance and guidance provided in the planning and implementing of this year's kickoff event at the State House.

Finally we would like to thank Nicola DeSantis, Consul General of Italy in Boston, and we look forward to his leadership for the Italian-American community.

Your attendance to as many of these events as possible is very crucial to the success of October as Italian American Heritage Month. Please spread the word to your family, friends, neighbors and colleagues.

To be added to the mailing list or e-mail distribution list, please contact James DiStefano at 617-909-4503 or visit our website: Italianheritagemonth.com

James DiStefano, President

Messaggio del Consolato Generale d'Italia per l'inaugurazione della XVI edizione dell'Italian American Heritage Month" in Massachusetts.

Il mese di ottobre rappresenta per tutti noi italiani e italo-americani un momento per celebrare con rinnovato orgoglio le nostre comuni radici. E' il momento per ricordare gli importanti traguardi raggiunti dalla nostra collettività e, al tempo stesso, prepararci ad affrontare le nuove sfide al fine di mantenere sempre vivi i valori della nostra cultura e trasmetterli alle nuove generazioni.

Sono sicuro che le molteplici iniziative che anche quest'anno caratterizzeranno le celebrazioni dell'Italian Heritage Month contribuiranno a rafforzare i legami con il nostro Paese e a diffondere i più alti valori della nostra cultura, valorizzando ulteriormente il contributo che la nostra collettività ha dato allo sviluppo culturale, economico e politico degli Stati Uniti d'America.

Rivolgo quindi al Comitato Organizzatore, in particolare al suo Presidente James DiStefano, e a tutte le associazioni italiane ed italo-americane il mio più caloroso ringraziamento per il continuo impegno con il quale, ogni anno, riescono a realizzare questa prestigiosa rassegna di eventi.

Nicola De Santis, Console Generale

Message from the Consulate General of Italy commemorating the inauguration of the XVI Edition of the Italian American Heritage Month" in Massachusetts

The month of October represents for all of us, Italians and Italian-Americans, a moment to celebrate our common roots with pride. It is a moment to remember the important goals we have reached as a community and at the same time it is a moment to prepare and face the new challenges ahead in order to keep the values of our culture alive and pass them down to new generations.

I am sure that the numerous initiatives for the celebration of the Italian Heritage Month will help to strengthen the ties with our homeland, to spread the beauty and wealth of our culture and highlight the contributions our community gives to the cultural, economic and political development of the United States of America.

I want express my gratitude to the organizing committee, and in particular to President James Di Stefano, as well as to all the Italian and Italian-American associations for their continuous support and effort which grows every year in organizing such a rich and prestigious program of events.

Nicola De Santis, Consul General

A Proclamation

Whereas This is the sixteenth Anniversary of Italian-American Heritage Month under the legislation signed in 1999 by Governor Argeo Paul Cellucci; and,

Whereas This is the 750th anniversary of the birth of Dante Alighieri, the supreme poet and the father of the Italian language; and,

Whereas This is the 200th anniversary of the composition and performance of Jubilate in New York City by the renowned Venetian born composer Filippo Trajetta which marked the return of peace after the War of 1812; and,

Whereas This is the 125th anniversary of the premier of the classic verismo opera, Cavalleria Rusticana, by Pietro Mascagni first performed at the Teatro Costanzi in Rome; and,

Whereas This is the 100th anniversary of the birth of Frank Sinatra, one of the most popular and influential vocalists of the twentieth century; and,

Whereas This is the 60th anniversary of the Oscar winning performance by the acclaimed actress Anna Magnani in The Rose Tattoo,

Whereas Antonin Scalia, has completed nearly thirty years of distinguished service as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court where he has championed fidelity to the text and original understanding of the United States Constitution,

Now, Therefore, I, Charles D. Baker, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim October 2015 to be,

ITALIAN-AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

And urge all the citizens of the Commonwealth to take cognizance of this event and participate fittingly in its observance.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this Twenty-Eighth Day of September, in the year two thousand and fifteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-ninth

BY HIS EXCELLENCE

CHARLES D. BAKER

GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH

KARYN E. POLITO

LT. GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH

WILLIAM FRANCIS GALVIN

October 7 MOVIE: *Haymarket. 7:00 PM. Historic New England and The West End Museum present Haymarket, a documentary film directed by Justin Goodstein and produced by Historic New England with the Haymarket Pushcart Association. Since the 1830s, Boston’s Haymarket has served a constant stream of longtime residents, newly-arrived immigrants, students, and tourists. Despite economic downturns, the advent of the supermarket, and massive construction projects from the Central Artery to the Big Dig, the Haymarket continues to be an economically vital and colorful gathering place for the city. The Haymarket film uses photographs and oral history interviews with workers, shoppers, fans, and historians to tell the story of this beloved marketplace. Following the screening, there will be a discussion about Haymarket with filmmaker and photographer Justin Goodstein and Kenneth C. Turino, manager of community engagement and exhibitions at Historic New England.

After some years, disillusioned by fascism, he is a fresh supplier for the Italian Army. In the war years he is in Budapest for his business. He lives an easy life there, well introduced into the Hungarian high society, without any problem coming from the war situation. When the Nazi's occupied Hungary, in 1944, instead to leave (Italy had already surrendered to the Allies) he escaped to the Spanish embassy in Budapest using his old safe conduct and becoming a Spanish citizen, changing name into Jorge Perlasca. He starts working as a diplomat here. When Sanz Briz (Geza Tordy), the Spanish consul, is removed, Perlasca immediately substitutes him, like if he was officially appointed from Spanish authorities. All the Nazi, the Hungarian authorities believe him. In his new fake assignment, he starts immediately to hide, shield and feed a lot of Jews (thousands!) issuing Spanish (fake of course) safe conducts for the Jews of Sephardic origin. He is in contact with another Hero of that time, Raoul Wallenberg. The two, together with other volunteers, running incredible risks had saved thousands of Hungarian Jews from a tragic death. Incredibly Perlasca succeeded to save two boys directly from the hands of Adolf Eichmann at the train station. This hero, after the war, was completely forgotten, and his story comes out just in the 1980s because some of the Hungarian Jews wanted to meet him again. Cast: Luca Zingaretti. This movie is: Biographical Drama / History. Director: Alberto Negrin. FREE (must pre-register). 2002, NR, 104 min, Language: Italian (English Subtitles).
